PROGRAM

This program examines healthcare and non-profit healthcare agencies in Greece. Students will engage with the people who call Greece home via interviews, design challenges, and multimodal projects. Greece's national health care system and economy provide important points of comparison for student's familiar with the U.S. and will help students gain a richer understanding of the global diversity in health care systems and health care experiences. Experiential, international learning is important for all students with an interest in health and design, but especially for those who hope to pursue medical and medically related professions.

LOCATION

Thessaloniki, Greece is the second largest city in Greece. It is ancient city and is home to over 1 million people. Located along the coast of the majestic Mediterranean Sea, Thessaloniki has a rich history and is a beautiful cosmopolitan city. Here students will be immersed in a culture that is filled with plenty of delicious places to eat, abundant shopping, and exciting places to go.

EXCURSIONS

Program excursions will include a walking tour of Thessaloniki; a guided tour of the White Tower and the Archaeological Museum; a guided tour of the archaeological site of Aigai and its museum; a day trip to Mount Athos; and a guided tour of Ancient Filippi.

HOUSING

Student housing in Thessaloniki will be in shared centrally located apartments that have Wi-Fi, linen changes, and cleaning service.
